Year 4 go on an adventure into the city.
Principal’s Report

Dear Parents

On Monday this week teachers and students focused on the International Day of the African Child. Activities took place in classrooms to acknowledge the plight of children in Africa particularly girls. This week there has also been a focus in classrooms for International Refugee Week. Students have been involved in activities that develop understanding and empathy around the issue of Refugees. And to add a lighter note I know that many students are following the FIFA World Cup. In yesterday’s assembly Adam Velan from 2H gave an excellent report on the competition to date. He has promised us a follow up report for next week’s assembly.

On Thursday morning the kitchen was alive with Year 6 students and parents cooking up a storm for their Year 6 fundraiser. Soup was prepared and quickly sold out at lunch time. We are looking forward to a repeat of the cook up so that those who missed out can sample Year 6’s culinary delights.

Tom Sarran has coordinated his Year 6 peers to organise a pink day next Thursday 26 June. Year 6 are asking everyone to wear something pink on Thursday and bring a gold coin for the McGrath Foundation. The McGrath Foundation funds many wonderful initiatives one of which is special nurses in hospitals for breast cancer patients. Last year we were able to make a significant donation to the Foundation and we are hoping to do so again.

We are having a hair-raising time before school in Cambridge avenue at the moment. Each day there are near misses on the pedestrian crossing and the area in the vicinity of the crossing. Many parents stop on the crossing and let their children out. This creates a very dangerous traffic hazard for those children attempting to cross the pedestrian crossing. Cars that stop on the crossing block clear vision of the crossing particularly for our smaller students. In the morning when children are coming to the school the vision from that direction is very poor. Each day we witness such reckless disregard for our children’s safety. We can only believe that those who practise this behaviour are completely unaware of how dangerous it is. We know beyond doubt that it is only a matter of time before someone is hit on the crossing. One of our parents has approached Woollahra Council to repaint the crossing so it is clearly visible. One way we can all keep our students safe is to never stop and drop on the crossing. In future please do not stop on the crossing to pick up or drop off your child. It may be convenient for you but you put our students at great risk. There is plenty of parking as you drive down the hill. Please use this parking to drop off your children safely.

We are looking forward to seeing many families on Sunday morning at the working bee and also on Monday at the book covering working bee in the library.

Wishing you a safe and happy holiday—Miri
3S did a news report at assembly on the landing of the first fleet in 1788. We dressed up and every one had a part in it. Our reporters interviewed Captain Phillip and his soldiers, Pemulwuy and his warriors, some convicts, Mary Reiby and Francis Greenway.
This week's assembly. Sports reporter Adam V of 2H gives us an amazing update on the World Cup Soccer.
